The minutes of the annual Strategic Planning Session was held at the Woods Cross City Public Works building located at 2287 South 1200 West, Woods Cross, UT 84087, on Saturday, March 6, 2021. beginning at 9:00 am.

After welcoming all to the Strategic Planning Session, the mayor turned the floor over to facilitator, Jeff Van Hulten, who then invited all present to review strategic goals for FY 2021 in order to assess progress and determine any adjustments which need to be made.

Following the review of the current strategic goals, all present worked together to identify, prioritize issues and to propose needs and advisable projects for the upcoming FY 2022.

After this discussion, the Mayor thanked everyone for their efforts, not only at the Strategic Planning Session, but every day, as these efforts are all integral to making Woods Cross City a nice place to live.

Jeff Van Hulten will follow up by providing administration with a printed summary of the top goals as identified through the discussion.

The meeting adjourned at 12:00 pm.
